Don Spencer returns to stage to reach a new generation of Australian Children

Four shows in April with special appearance from Dorothy the Dinosaur

4 March 2010 - The Australian Children's Music Foundation (ACMF) today proudly announced the return of Don Spencer to the stage entertaining a new generation of Australian children. The show will also feature special guest, Dorothy the Dinosaur. Along with Dorothy, other friends helping Don perform favourites such as Please Don't Call Me a Koala Bear, Boomerang and Dig, Dig, Dig Like a Wombat, include Penny the Penguin, Kelly the Koala and Bob the Kelpie!

As the host of Playschool for 28 years, Don Spencer entertained generations of Australians as they grew up. Parents will have a unique opportunity to introduce their children to the favourite songs they grew up with - making the show an exciting outing for the whole family. Two sessions at 10.00am and 11.30am will be held on Tuesday 13 April and Wednesday 14 April at the Seymour Centre in Sydney.

In addition to entertaining the whole family, the concerts will raise important funds for The Australian Children's Music Foundation, which is dedicated to improving educational and social outcomes for Australian children through music.

"I am delighted to be performing some of my favourite songs to a new generation of Australian children and importantly, raising funds for the ACMF. Parents can be proud that while their kids are enjoying the concert, that the proceeds of ticket sales will be used to help less fortunate Australian children learn through the magic of music," said Don Spencer.

Don concluded that, "I am very excited to announce that many of our well-loved friends will also be performing including my special friend Dorothy the Dinosaur; who I am sure is a little more well-known than me with most kids!"
