

The Shadow
Gilda Sorella

Her whole life she'd been a ghost,
She watched the world as it passed her by
And in the darkness of the shadow
Not a soul would see her cry.
Her heart was sick of isolation
Her unheard screams of desperation
And only one gave consolation.

Chorus

Dear, dear friend
You are love without end
Till the stars come battling the sky
And dear, dear friend
You're with me till the end
Till the sun starts swallowing it's light

She said I swear these cuts these they are not mine
A girl did them from deep inside
You cleaned my wounds now let them dry
Because there's nothing left to hide.
She breathed you life till your soul shone
Like the star of that holy night
Her shadowed heart set like the sun
And all because you leant her light

Chorus

Bridge

You were the one who shone the light
On my shadowed world, as dark as night.
Together then we won the fight
And the shadow, she was no more

Chorus
